The Garland Summer Musicals was founded in May of 1983 to provide a major musical theatre program which allowed professional artists to work with aspiring performers of all ages as part of a theatre training and semi-professional production company. It has proved to be so successful that today the GSM is preparing to begin its 28th Season! Over the past 27 years, the GSM has given over 750 scholarships through a joint program with the Dallas Community College District. The GSM Board is excited about their continuing partnership with Richland College which stimulates the growth and enhancement of the Garland Summer Musicals through additional resources and classes that are available to all participants. Each year, the GSM contracts with a totally professional staff under the direction of Buff Shurr and attracts an audience of over 7,500 patrons. The pride and tradition and the critical success of the Garland Summer Musicals have made it a major theatrical event in the DFW area.

Father of the Bride

By Caroline Francke

June 18-July 18 (date change)

Thursdays 7:30 pm, Friday and Saturday, 8 pm and Sunday Matinee 2 pm
 Thursday dinner & a show $30 or $40, Friday & Saturday $22, Sunday brunch and a show $48 (Show only $20)

Mr. Banks learns that one of the young men he has seen occasionally about the house is about to become his son-in-law. Daughter Kay announces the engagement out of nowhere. Mrs. Banks and her sons are happy, but Mr. Banks is in a dither. The groom-to-be, Buckley Dunstan, appears on the scene and Mr. Banks realizes that the engagement is serious. Buckley and Kay don't want a "big" wedding—just a simple affair with a few friends! We soon learn, however, that the "few" friends idea is out. Then trouble really begins. The guest list grows larger each day, a caterer is called in, florists, furniture movers and dressmakers take over, and the Banks household is soon caught in turmoil—not to mention growing debt. When Kay, in a fit of temper, calls off the wedding, everyone's patience snaps. But all is set right, and the wedding (despite more last-minute crises) comes off beautifully. In the end, the father of the bride is a happy, proud man, glad that the wedding is over, but knowing too that it was worth all the money and aggravation to start his daughter off so handsomely on the road to married life.

REPERTORY THEATRE ANNOUNCES 2010 SUMMER MUSICALS MISS SAIGON, OLIVER!

MISS SAIGON: June 18-27, Promenade Theatre

This June "Heat is On in Saigon," at Repertory Company Theatre! This production of MISS SAIGON will run June 18-27, Promenade Theatre, 650 N Coit, Richardson. Show times are FR/SAT 7:30, SUN 2:00. Tickets are $25 adults, $20 seniors, $14 youth and can be purchased in advanced by calling the Box Office at 972-690-5029. (This production is not recommended for children.) Show Sponsor: Bell Helicopter

The London musical import, which updated Madame Butterfly to the final days of the Viet Nam War, will be performed by the Theatre's acclaimed REP Company (55 member acting troupe). MISS SAIGON is by the creators of Les Miserables. Music is by Claude-Michel Schnberg, lyrics by Richard Maltby, Jr. and Alain Boublil, and the book and original French lyrics are by Alain Boublil. "The one thing everyone asks me is the helicopter, says Michelle Breedlove, show's director and choreographer. "I have some clever ideas about that. I do not think the audiences will be disappointed." Breedlove has several large scale musicals already under her belt (Grease, Urinetown, Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat, Footloose). "It's so great to have Broadway musicals available right here in our community" explains Debra Carter, artistic director. "We love to tackle the big shows! Especially during the Summer."

Military/Veteran Half Price Tickets available for the Friday and Sunday Shows.

Cast includes: Gayla Cockrall as Kim, Calvin Roberts as Chris and Jessica Gabrillo as Tam.

OLIVER: July 16-25, Promenade Theatre

Consider yourself invited to Repertory Company Theatre's Tony-award winning musical, OLIVER, July 16-25 at the Promenade Theatre, 650 N Coit, Richardson. Show times are FR/SAT 7:30 and SUN 2:00 for the two weekend run. Tickets ($25 adults, $20 seniors, $14 youth) can be purchased in advance by calling the Box Office at 972-690-5029. OLIVER is sure to be a family favorite! Show Sponsor: Neiman Marcus Foundation.

Oliver! is one of the most beloved British musicals, vividly bringing to life Dickens' timeless characters with its ever-popular story of the boy who asked for more. The cast will include newcomer to the REP stage, Steve Miller, in the coveted role of Fagin alongside REP favorites, Gary Anderson as Bill Sikes and Laura Alley as Nancy.

"The REP takes their shows very seriously but doesn't miss out on the fun....I think that's a great mix" says Miller, who auditioned for the first time this past January. "Playing Fagin is quite an honor for me. He's a scoundrel with a heart not quite rotten enough to make him despicable. And this sort of fun combined with depth is a treat for any actor. Besides, you can't go wrong with lines like: Shut up and drink your gin!" Miller lives in Richardson and teaches Drama at the Covenant School in Dallas. He is married with two children.

Shoes for Orphan Souls

Miss Saigon and Oliver! will support Shoes of Orphan Souls. Repertory Company Theatre is asking for NEW shoe donations during June & July. "Since both of our summer productions deal with the struggles of young children, we decided to support Shoes for Orphan Souls. Our goal is to obtain 100 shoes for the kids this summer...and we need your help", explains artistic director, Debra Carter.

Repertory Company Theatre was established in 1986 as a non profit theatre with a REP Company. Each season the Theatre presents Broadway Musicals, Classic Plays and Special Presentations performed by our 55 member REP Company. In addition RCT School of Musical Theatre provides year round training in theatre arts for all ages.

Flaming Guns of the Purple Sage: Opening Soon in Theatre Too

A beer guzzling, middle-aged rancher woman (Big 8) is having a grand time nursing a good looking cowboy through his rodeo injuries. The unconventional pair's idyll is threatened by Big 8's financial woes (her ranch is about to be foreclosed on) but most of all by the invasion of a floozy (with a pretty plastic hand) on the run from her Hell's Angel biker pursuer. Add the return of Big 8's prodigal son, her unhelpful sister and gun violence to the mix, and this comedy breaks every code of the wild, wild West. Directed by Terry Dobson, Flaming Guns of the Purple Sage features Collin Duwe, Emily Jackson, Gene Raye Price, Dan Ramsey, Sally Soldo, Justin Vorpahl, and Jordan Willis.

Who cares if the corn is as high as an elephant's eye as long as the songs that pour out of "Oklahoma!" add up to one rousing show! Now known for being some of the best and most memorable music and lyrics in musical theatre's history, the show broke the mold when it opened in 1943 – a rural setting, no splashy opening number, a unique integration of story and song – nothing like it had ever been seen on Broadway. There's sassy Aunt Eller churning the butter while Curly lazily welcomes the day singing "Oh, What a Beautiful Morning," Laurey pouting over her two suitors during "Many a New Day," poor Jud and his pitiful but comical lament and the delightful light-hearted trio of "I Can't Say No" Ado Annie, Will Parker and Ali Hakim. "Oklahoma!" is an enduring musical triumph.

What is Cooperative Arts News?

The Mission: The CAN organization was created for the purpose of helping cooperative member arts organizations build audiences by supporting each other. CAN will send notifications to list members with news of member organizations' upcoming events and other arts news of interest.

The Rules:

1. Since this is a "cooperative" of arts organizations supporting each other, member groups who would like to post notices, agree to "receive" notifications from other member groups in return. Individuals will have the option at any time to "opt-out" if they choose not to receive future notifications by e-mailing the list manager.
2. In order to preserve the integrity and quality of the postings to this list and to prevent any unwanted "Spamming," all notifications that member groups want to send through this notification list must come through the list manager. Groups simply send an e-mail notification to the list manager with a descriptive write-up and it will be sent. If there are multiple notifications that need to go out, they may be grouped together to reduce the number of e-mails that are sent to the list.

If at anytime, you would like to be removed from this e-mail list or if you are a new organization that would like to join, please e-mail the list manager and your request will be acted upon in a timely manner.

As always, thank-you for supporting the performing arts in the North Texas area!

Regards,

David Witherspoon
